

Grandma Jan and Grandma Laura

I have two grandmothers—Grandma Jan and Grandma Laura. Some things about them are very similar. They both read many mysteries and adventure stories. They also both like to listen to classical music. Neither one likes to eat fried food, but they both love to bake bread and pies. Also, both like to have big family parties at their houses.

In some ways, however, they are very different. While Grandma Jan likes to paint or sew indoors, Grandma Laura would rather go jogging or swimming outdoors. They both like animals, but Grandma Jan has a pet cat, while Grandma Laura prefers birds. They live in different states, so I don't get to see them too often. Grandma Jan writes me e-mails all the time. Grandma Laura, on the other hand, calls me on the telephone. Even though they are unlike in these ways, they both love me very much, and I love them both, too.
